Biggert Announces Town Hall Meetings

Residents Invited to Sessions in Bolingbrook and Orland Park During the First Week of August

Clarendon Hills, Illinois – U.S. Representative Judy Biggert (R-IL13) announced today that she will host two town hall meetings during the first week of August.

Biggert will discuss what's happening in Washington, DC, including details on the President Bush's energy policy, how residents will benefit from reduced federal tax bills, and how the education reform plan will affect schools in the 13th Congressional District. Biggert's staff also will be on hand to help residents with individual questions and casework.

The first town hall meeting will take place on Tuesday, August 7, 2001, from 6:30 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. at Bolingbrook Village Hall, 375 W. Briarcliff Road, Bolingbrook.

The second will take place on Wednesday, August 8, 2001, from 6:30 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. at Orland Park Village Hall, 14700 Ravinia Avenue, Orland Park.

Congresswoman Biggert already has held two Town Hall meetings this year in Naperville and Downers Grove.

"These town meetings provide a good opportunity for folks to bring questions, problems, suggestions, or observations about how our government is being run," said Biggert. "I find them a great way to take the pulse of the 13th District, and those who have attended find them a great way to keep in touch with the issues."

Constituents requesting additional information about the meetings can contact Biggert's Clarendon Hills office at (630) 655-2052.
